.Agenda Items <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Low Road remains the PC’s #1 priority. The patch work repairs made by SCC Highways fail to solve the problems of rutted/flooded road surface. A problem exacerbated by use of the road by school buses and accessing the carpark that serves Wingfield Barns and the Church. Our problem is the loss of SCC Councillor support due to his ill health.                      The 4 main issues are:                     <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Flood water coming off Pallents Farm land.</li> <li>➤ No clear drainage ditch to carry off excess water</li> <li>➤ Need for change to road camber to improve water run off</li> <li>➤ Total resurfacing of the road</li> </ul> </li> <li>• As part of the Low Road renovation is the need for:                     <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ Hedge trimming</li> <li>➤ Road signage repair (as in other parts of the village)</li> <li>➤ Agree site and spelling of “Nanny Bradshaws” and “Dally Poo” oral history signs.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	Clerk to propose way forward
Discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wingfield Barns Car Park</li> <li>• Wingfield Barns Community Shop</li> <li>• Sheep on the Green – RF reported that grazing has gone well and farmer wants to continue with arrangement that the Council agreed</li> <li>• The blackthorn bushes on the border of the Green need cutting back. It was agreed to action prior to the nesting season.</li> </ul>	Clerk to speal to Anna at the Barns Clerk to action in Feb/Mar
